Foreword

I am very pleased to introduce the Argyll and Bute Community Learning and Development (CLD) Strategic Partnership Plan for 2021-2024.

Since the last plan was published, young people and the wider community have been working tirelessly to defend and protect their human rights. In this time, we have seen the COVID-19 pandemic come about which has challenged, at some point every young person's rights, notably the situation which faced those in education. Life was not as we knew it and everyone had to adapt.

Thanks to the dedication of CLD workers and partners, services were able to continue and young people have kept up their amazing work. For instance in March of 2021, the UNCRC Incorporation (Scotland) Bill passed through the Scottish Parliament with unilateral backing. That is a significant achievement that every young person and activist had a role to play in.

As we recover from COVID-19, CLD has a huge role to play in this by supporting and empowering the community by providing programmes of training and resources as well as building skills, increasing community empowerment and more. The pandemic has proven that things can be done differently and as we emerge from the pandemic, this must be reflected on to change and improve the way we do things. Also as we do this, it's really important we all work together to build the best service we possibly can that delivers for every person in our community.

CLD is enormously powerful. Every two years, the service supports the election and training of three MSYPs, a position I am very honoured to hold. Not only that, throughout the two year term the team work hard to support MSYPs and help us to engage with the community through consultation, youth groups and more. Speaking personally, being an MSYP supported by the Argyll and Bute community learning team has boosted my confidence, communication skills and has allowed me the platform to speak up about the issues that matter most to young people. However, it's not just MSYPs that CLD partners equip these skills with, it's every young person they work with, from those involved in youth forums to other participatory youth and community empowerment groups. The power of youth participation and engagement must never be underestimated and it is up to organisations to meaningfully engage young people and the communities in any decision they take that will affect us.

Following extensive data analysis

and consultation with stakeholders, the partnership identified six key themes to focus on for the lifespan of this plan. There are strong links to CPP priorities and they take into account wider strategic plans and emerging priorities across Argyll and Bute:

1. Digital skills
2. Core skills for learning, life and work
3. Health and wellbeing
4. Your voice
5. The learner offer
6. Improve how we work as a partnership

I am looking forward to seeing how CLD evolves over the next three years, looking at the important role CLD plays in support by COVID-19 recovery, ensuring the workforce has the necessary skills to support communities, empowering young people and ensuring our rights are protected. I am keen for this plan to be a 'live' document that will change and adapt to the needs of the community between now and 2024.

As I have always said, 'youth and community work changes lives'

Introduction to CLD

Community Learning and Development (CLD) is a method of working with groups and individuals of all ages to engage in learning, personal development and active citizenship.

The Scottish Government's National Performance Framework clearly defines the specific focus of Community Learning by partners which should be to:

Improve life chances for people of all ages, including young people in particular through learning, personal development and active citizenship.

Create stronger, more resilient, supportive, influential and inclusive communities.

Support is focused on disadvantaged or vulnerable individuals or groups with the aim of bringing about change in their lives and communities. The term refers to a distinctive process of engagement and support with content that is negotiated with learners.

CLD activity has a strong focus on early intervention, prevention, tackling inequalities and includes the following:

- Community Development (building the capacity of communities to meet their own needs, engaging with and influencing decision makers);
- Youth work, family learning and other early intervention work with children, young people and families;
- Community Based Adult Learning including Adult Literacies and English for Speakers of Other Languages (ESOL);
- Learning for disadvantaged and vulnerable groups and individuals, for example people with disabilities, have care leaving experience or have a history of offending.
- Volunteer development
- Learning support and guidance in the community

The Community Learning & Development (Scotland) Regulations 2013 place a statutory requirement on local authorities to publish a plan every 3 years' outlining how it will co-ordinate and secure "adequate and efficient" Community Learning & Development (CLD) provision with other sector partners. Whilst Argyll and Bute Council are required by legislation to lead on meeting the requirements of the CLD Regulations, it is important to note that partners must also be meaningfully involved, taking collective ownership and responsibility to produce, implement and review the CLD Plan.

The newly formed Argyll and Bute Community Learning and Development Partnership will:

- Have clear roles and responsibilities of partners
- Plan effectively together
- Use data and learner feedback to shape priorities, identify gaps, trends, avoid duplication and maximise resources
- Raise the profile of the work of CLD and share good practice

New CLD Partnership

Vision, Structure and Governance

Our Vision

"Working together to improve lives across Argyll and Bute by empowering individuals and communities to lead sustainable, fulfilling and happy lives through continuous learning, cooperative problem solving and removing barriers to engagement, health and wellbeing."

Values

The CLD Partnership has adopted the principles, values, ethics and competencies set out by the CLD Standards Council for Scotland. The principles that underpin CLD practice are:

Empowerment - increasing the ability of individuals and groups to influence matters affecting them and their communities;

Participation - supporting people to take part in decision making;

Inclusion, equality of opportunity and anti-discrimination - recognising some people need additional support to overcome the barriers they face;

Self – determination - supporting the right of people to make their own choices

Partnership - ensuring resources and the range of skills and capabilities available are used effectively

The newly formed CLD Partnership will take a leading role in:

- Being responsible for the development implementation, monitoring and reporting of the Argyll and Bute CLD Plan. This will include the appropriate risk management and mitigations given manpower and resources available.
- Ensuring strategic priorities are aligned to key local and national plans and ensure there is no duplication of work

- Sharing and analysing data and identifying gaps to inform planning and decision making
- Fostering collaboration and where possible sharing resources across the partnership
- Putting in place delivery/workstream group arrangements to ensure effective implementation at operational and local level, taking into account geographical variations/needs.
- Evaluating and reviewing the CLD plan on a regular basis, taking into account changing learner needs and ensure a culture of self-evaluation and improvement.
- Communicating the work of the partnership to key partners, raising the profile of the work of the partnership and sharing and celebrating key successes.
- Identifying and sharing examples of good practice
- Contributing to Education Scotland CLD inspections and other appropriate CLD quality assurance measures.

Resourcing the Plan

The Plan will be delivered using existing resources across the partnership members. liveArgyll's Community Learning team will also provide the capacity to lead and support local learning partnerships and planning processes.

Governance and reporting arrangements

Governance structures have been put in place at a strategic level (e.g. liveArgyll Board, Community Services Committee) and operational level (e.g. CLD Partnership, CPP Partnership) that will be utilised in terms of authorisation routes, scrutiny/performance management and liaising with key stakeholders/partners.

The diagram to the right illustrates the governance structure and highlights the key internal/external relationships.

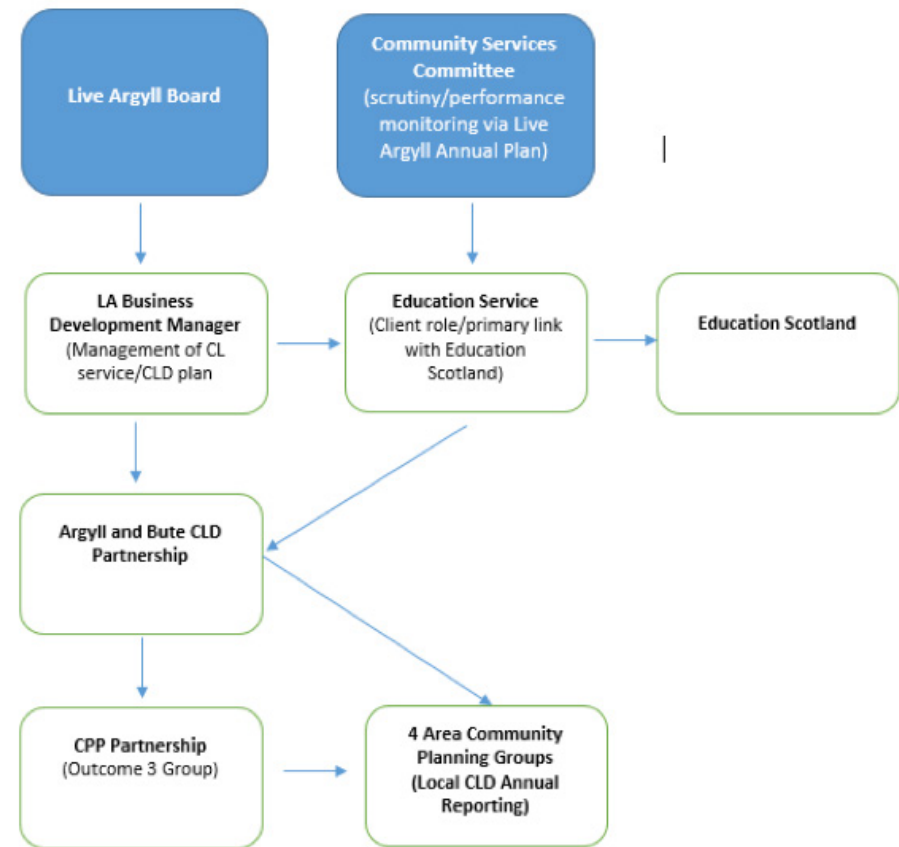

(Abbreviations: LA - LiveArgyll, CPP - Community Planning Partnership)

Quarterly updates on progress of the CLD Plan will be submitted to the Outcome 3 group within the Community Planning Partnership. This group has the remit to progress priorities around education, skills and training within the 10 year Local Outcome Improvement Plan for Argyll and Bute. The Outcome 3 group reports directly into the CPP Management Committee. Annual reports will be presented to the Community Services Committee of Argyll and Bute Council as well as to Area Community Planning Group meetings. Education Scotland's Quality Improvement framework (How Good is the Community Learning and Development in our community) will be used to determine what worked well and where improvements could be made.

As well as Outcome 3 priorities, the Community Learning Partnership will support the delivery of wider CPP priorities, particularly Outcome 4: Children and young people have the best possible start and Outcome 5: People live active, healthier and independent lives.

LiveArgyll's Community Learning management team will be link officers as members of the 4 Area Community Planning groups. There are also Community Development Officers supporting community groups to attend and have a voice.

Education Scotland Inspection

The most recent inspection by Education Scotland of the CLD Service in Argyll and Bute took place in 2019 with a subsequent follow up visit in 2020. Key lessons have been learned and focus given to these areas over the duration of the new plan.

Key Strengths Identified

Ambitious community organisations and volunteers, improving communities and enhancing the learning offer.

Youth voice and leadership opportunities, empowering young people to contribute to their communities.

Improvement Areas

Strengthen the governance of CLD and develop a shared understanding of vision, values and aims.

Improve approaches to identifying the CLD offer across all partners to better inform resource allocation and joint planning.

Improve approaches to planning for improvement, including developing a systematic approach to shared self-evaluation, jointly setting targets, monitoring and reporting on progress.

Strengthen the collective adult learning offer across the partnership

Informing the new plan

A number of methods were used to help inform the new CLD plan:

1. Review of the 2018-2021 plan with key partners
2. CLD inter agency work group mapping of key local/national plans and strategies linked to CLD, analysis of data and emerging Covid-19 recovery plans, gaps and local need
3. Consultation programme using the VOiCE community engagement tool. Two elements included an online survey for young people, adults and wider organisations and a programme of face to face/online focus groups with learners

Policy context

The local and national policy context continues to evolve. In preparing the new CLD Plan, the partnership has taken into account relevant local and national strategies and plans as well as wider frameworks and consultation data as outlined in this table.

2018-2021 Plan Review

A review process of the 18-21 plan included feedback from a range of partners which is summarised below:

What went well

Partnership work on digital inclusion

Joint working to meet the needs of communities

Leadership opportunities for young people

Inter agency work at local level

Areas for improvement

Wider engagement with 3rd sector delivery partners

Regular review of data

Improved cascade of information and awareness of the strength of CLD work

Joint ownership of all key partners in developing the plan

Clear responsibilities of partners and where they will contribute

Consultation Programme

The consultation survey exercise involved 315 adults, 219 young people and 96 representatives of organisations. A focus group delivery framework was developed with the support of young people and 8 face to face focus groups took place across Argyll and Bute. An engagement plan was put in place to target specific individuals and groups within communities.

The survey themes were identified from:

- Local and national strategies
- Local and national data
- Education Scotland/Scottish Government CLD Plan guidance
- Emerging Covid recovery priorities across partners

The process:

- Inter agency work group - consultation and communications plan
- Involvement of young people in developing and testing the survey
- Digital marketing assets for partners
- Digital via survey monkey and paper options
- Support for learners/groups

The partnership has identified some gaps from the consultation process which was anticipated due to a variety of factors linked to the Covid-19 pandemic. Further face to face consultation has therefore been built into year one of the plan.

Assessing need and setting priorities

CLD needs in Argyll and Bute have been carefully considered and grouped under 6 key themes:

1. Digital skills

2. Core skills for learning, life and work

3. Health and wellbeing

4. Your voice

5. The learner offer

6. Improve how we work as a partnership

We recognise the importance of ensuring the partnership works together, sharing expertise, manpower and resources to reduce inequalities and support those who need it the most coming out of the pandemic.

The action plan sets out our shared priorities for the next three years to improve outcomes for individuals and communities across Argyll and Bute. The partnership will monitor progress and produce a self-evaluation each year reporting the performance to Argyll and Bute Council and the Community Planning Partnership.

Unmet need

We recognise that some identified needs will remain unmet.

Delivering an equity of provision across Argyll and Bute remains a challenge given the differing manpower, resources across our diverse urban, rural and island communities. Partners will continue to work together offer support for learners to access digital services as well as outreach activity where resources permit.

Cost for participants

The partnership will continue to work together to maximise funding streams to help reduce costs for targeted provision. Using a hybrid of face to face and digital delivery will also help maximise financial resources.

Transport

The partnership will share learner feedback with wider CPP/Locality Planning partners, deliver outreach programmes supported by volunteers and maximise use of online programmes working with local partners to reach rural/island communities.
