NEWS

Argyll and Bute Council announce the launch of the Strategic Events and Festivals Fund on 7th October – Deadline: Monday 18th November at 12 noon

The fund is open to not-for-profit organisations delivering an event or festival of strategic importance in Argyll and Bute between 1st April 2025 and 31st March 2026; and aims to support events and festivals to add value and increase their resilience, sustainability and growth.
Applications can be made for up to 20% of the total cost of the event/festival. Please note that there will be one call for applications for this period.
To maximise the limited budget available and demonstrate best value, requests should be made for the minimum amount needed to deliver the event/festival. It is expected that most applicants will seek between £2,500 and £5,000.

The maximum amount that can be applied for is £30,000.
Funds are distributed via a competitive process and applications can be made online here from 7th October:

Argyll & Bute HSCP has launched year 5 of the Living Well grants

Living Well grants are open to Third Sector Organisations or constituted community groups who can support the aims of the Living Well Strategy.

Connecting people to community activities and services that support their health and wellbeing is also known as 'social prescribing'.

This year are looking to fund projects which have a particular focus on:

- Connecting people in your communities to the right support. The right support may include self-management, activities, groups and services in your local community.
- Raising awareness of support available within local communities.
- Explore the local need for social prescribing, e.g. engaging with the local community about how we connect people in islands communities to the right support when they need it.
- Developing community support for local health, wellbeing and social issues, using collective knowledge, skills or resources within the community.

Deadline: 25th October (midnight). Maximum amount available for 1 single application is £4000.

Further details on Living Well can be found at:
https://www.ablivingwell.org/

Scottish Children's Lottery Trust – Open for Applications

The Fund will reopen for the final funding round of 2024 on 30 September 2024 (noon) and close on 18 October 2024 (noon).

The funding is intended for projects and activities in Scotland that help to alleviate the impact of poverty, financial hardship, social exclusion, relative/multiple deprivations, and disability or illness among children, young people, and their families.

Grants are available for registered charities in Scotland to support projects and activities that benefit vulnerable children, young people, and families most at risk of poverty.
Two levels of funding are available:

- Bright Futures Fund – Grants of up to £1,000.
- Small Fund – Grants of up to £4,000

Applicants are expected to have a level of match funding in place.
Deadline: 18 October 2024 (noon) https://www.scottishchildrenslotterytrust.com/
